

What a Week! March 31 Edition

A look ahead...

School resumes Tuesday and there are only 8 weeks remaining!

This week's theme is castles, royalty and dragons; oh my! We're looking forward to creative castle building using 2D and 3D shapes.

Tuesday we have RPCPS Alumni who will return as guest readers and Ms. Fran from the Library visits on Wednesday.

Grandparents' Day

Friday, April 26

8:30 - 11:00 am

Grandparents are welcome to come spend the morning at preschool. We will play, have snacks, read stories and make crafts. Students will have short performance of favorite songs too!

There will be a special lounge area with treats, coffee, and tea for a break from the fun. Early dismissal this day (all leave at 11:00am).

RSVP the with the number attending to rpcpreschool@rpcusa.org or to Lynda on Remind by April 20 so we have enough of everything.

easter
