

What a Week! News of January 28

It's a Wicky Wacky Week next week! On Wednesday, kids can dress wacky if they want. Ex. mismatched clothing, silly hair, pajama pants, inside out clothing etc. What a fun way to chase away the winter doldrums!

Guest Readers and Show-and-Tell

Now that we're into the swing of things, we invite parents and other family members to guest read any day from 9:45 - 10:00 and 10:05 - 10:20 during snack time.

A show-and-tell schedule will come home soon! Children can bring something they cherish to share with the class during snack time on their assigned day.

Save the Date!

Dudes Night is Monday, February 28 at 6pm. Dads (or another important man) are invited to come with their child for a short fun-filled evening!
