

What a Week!

News of September 17

This week we learned all about Feelings. It was fun to have a guest author, Janan Cain, read her book.

Plus the letter B and number 2.

STEAM focused on the five senses.

Next week's theme is Bees.

Plus the letter C and number 3.

STEAM will focus on weighing, measuring and dinosaurs!

Word of Mouth

The #1 reason people choose a preschool is because they hear about it from a friend. We appreciate you sharing the good news of RPC preschool with others!

Please also like, comment and share our Facebook and Instagram posts.

We have a few spaces available!
