

What a Week! January 17, 2025 Pets and the letter Q

What a fun theme pet week was! It was nice seeing the variety of pets we have (or wish we had). If you didn't send one in, it's not too late to add to the gallery on the piano.

Guests this week were Ana Kanatas (Joan's daughter) with her bearded dragon, Ollie H. and Everett had family members come read, and Cardina's mom made a special snack. Plus Ms. Kathi, Mile's grandma for story time.

Next week's theme is jungle animals! !

If you haven't yet shared a talent or been a guest reader, it's not too late! Talent share is 10:15 - 11:15 and guest reading can happen in that window as well or at 12:15.
