

What a Week!

November 1, 2024

Halloween and the letter I

Visitors this week included the Hinsdale Humane Society, a yoga instructor and guest reader (and resident retired pastor) Mr. Doug. Of course those were all outshadowed by a costume parade, special craft and science on Halloween. Not to mention being on the news!

Spanish Vocab of the Week

Things outside!

Attached is a slip about our online art gallery - Artsonia. They offer products imprinted with your child's art. They are perfect Grandparent gifts! The school receives a small profit from purchases in the form of Amazon gift cards which we then use for more art supplies. Thank you for supporting the arts!

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7

8:00 am - 1:00 pm

$20.00 PER CHILD; adults free

Enjoy a meal, photos with a professional Santa, and a marketplace vendor fair focused on children purchasing gifts for friends and family. Gift wrapping station available too!
