

What a Week! November 21, 2024 Thanksgiving and the letter L

By far the highlight of the week was our Feast of Friends! Pasta salad was the most unique item this year. Yes please, no thank you and many exclamation of “yum” were heard. Thank you parents for making this tradition so special!

Spanish Vocab of the Week

In Spanish, Thanksgiving words continued on the menu! The tree of thankfulness was a lesson taught by Miss Estela who is working on clinical hours in preparation for student teaching with us in the spring.

Happy Thanksgiving from all of us to all of you! Mrs. Kanatas, Mrs. Nadkarni, Ms. Anaya, Ms. Bartholomew and Mrs. Rodriguez
