Next week's theme: Space!

Miss Fran from the Riverside Library paid us a visit again this week. We started practicing songs for Dad's Night next week, celebrated 100 days, and did a science experiment where we'll learn the results on Monday.

Next week there's so much on the schedule including picture day on Tuesday!

Don't Forget!

Friday, February 28 kids can come dressed as silly as they'd like! (Just make sure they're still appropriate for gym time.) We will do silly things too like a scrambled schedule. A fun way to celebrate the end of the meteorological winter!
