

What a Week!
January 30, 2025

Theme: Pets

Weekly Recap

We read books about pets, made art about pets, learned the names of pets in Spanish, sang songs about pets and generally had a great time talking about all creatures great and small. Guests included Miss Fran, Miss Kathi and Alastair's mom Rachel who read and led a paper bag pet craft.

A Look Ahead...

Theme for the week is Shadows and Light. Monday is Groundhog Day so we'll be reading all about the old tale of the Groundhog predicting the length of winter. We have several sciency things in store too! Monday is also National Tater Tot Day. Guess what's on the snack menu?

Valentine's Day - February 12
