

What a Week!
March 27, 2026

Theme: Nursery Rhymes

Weekly Recap

Hickory Dickory Dock...have you noticed the clock and mice in the circle room? Has your child come home with "fly away Jack, fly away Jill" or even Juan and Lina (we know the rhyme in English and Spanish)? The week also included printmaking, using our sense of hearing to guess what's in the egg, and some fun outside play. The field trip on Friday resulted in some great learning about muralist Keith Haring and a keepsake that you'll receive in a few weeks.

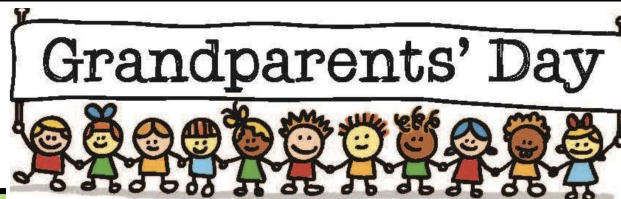

A Look Ahead...

The Tuesday, April 7 return from break starts the rapid countdown to the end of the year. Only 8 weeks remain! If you haven't already come in to read or share a talent, don't delay! Contact Joan Kanatas joan@rpcusa.org to get on the docket.

RPC invites you to attend Holy Week Services:

- Palm Sunday worship at 10:00 am with childcare and River Kids (Sunday School) with Miss Christina, followed by fellowship and yard sign creation showing love for our neighbors
- Maundy Thursday soup supper at 6:00pm in the parlor (the room to the left of the preschool door) followed by worship for adults and kids programming
- Easter Sunday 10:00 am worship, fellowship and an Easter Egg Hunt (hopefully outside)!

Friday, April 24 from 8:30 - 11:00 we will play, have snacks, read stories and make crafts. Students will have short performance of favorite songs too! No grandparent handy? No problem! Church member are happy to step in as surrogates.

RSVP the with the number attending to rpcpreschool@rpcusa.org or to Lynda on Remind by April 18 so we have enough of everything.
