

What a Week! September 12, 2025 Theme: Feelings

Weekly Recap

This week was focused on identifying feelings and how to respond to them. We learned the words in English and Spanish. Check out the display in the circle room! Much of the week was a continued focus on learning routines, procedures and practices of the preschool. Walking feet, hand washing, lining up, sharing toys, etc. Our first walking field trip to the Riverside Library was a blast. Plus we had guest readers in Miss Fran and Ms. Kathi and Ms. Gigi led us in song. Her grandchildren went to school here and are now in 4th and 6th grade! If you or a family member have a talent to share, let Mrs. Kanatas know. jkanatas@rpcusa.org

You can see all the activity on our Facebook Page!

A Look Ahead...

Next week's theme is down by the Riverside. We will learn a little about the town and a lot about river life/animals. On Friday, Yogi Kristien (aka famed former Ames teacher Mrs. Mimlitz) will have the first of her monthly visits.

Parent Homework:

- 1) Help your child with their "all about me" page for the school book. (Coming home today.)
- 2) Connect yourself to Artsonia so you can see their artwork. It is also a way to purchase unique items as gifts with a little coming back to us in Amazon credit.

Mommy and Me Night
Thursday, September 25
6:00 - 7:00 pm

Moms (or another significant female in the life of the preschooler) and children come to school and have special time together while meeting other families.
